Hello,

Having consulted with undersigned legal counsel, the Salary Commission has determined the recent attempted removal from the Commission of all seven members clearly exceeded the authority granted to the Mayor under the Revised Code of Washington and the pertinent Redmond ordinance(s).

In light of that conclusion, Commissioner Fernando Medina Corey hereby calls for a special meeting of the Salary Commission to be held on June 8, 2023, at 7pm, with the following agenda:

- Call to order
- Voting on a new interim chair for the Commission
- Public comment period (1 minute per speaker, limited to 30 minutes. Speakers can sign up for public comment on a paper sheet that will be provided at the meeting)
- Open comment for Redmond Salary Commission members
- Financial impacts discussion with Redmond City Staff - 5 minutes. This item will only be on the agenda if any and all materials for the presentation to the commission are sent by June 7 at 5pm at the latest. The commission may remove this item from the agenda.
- Open discussion between commissioners of any possible salary commission business, data, public comment, or other issues that may pertain to the work of the salary commission. This may include, but is not limited to, commissioners asking questions of staff or of each other.
- Deliberation and selection of a final proposal. The proposal may be but is not limited to being one of the four previously discussed proposals:
 - Living Wage Proposal: $9608/month
 - Percentage of mayoral proposed salary proposal: $7875/month
 - Matt's Proposal: $6500/month
 - Karen's Proposal: $5000/month
- Voting on a final proposal. This commission will make a decision that is considered a "Final disposition" under RCW 42.30.080. This proposal may be one of the previous proposals listed above or a separate proposal arrived at through deliberation.

- Discussion and action as needed to file the passed proposal with the City Clerk
- Closing comments from commissioners

This meeting will include a remote option to join. If staff are unable to provide this link then the commission will provide it.

As a reminder, the Mayor has no legal authority to prevent a meeting of the independent salary commission and is obligated to provide notice of the special meeting to the public as described under the OPMA.

This request requires that three other commissioners or the chair co-sign this call for a special meeting.

Hereby submitted through the Salary Commission's legal counsel by Commissioner Fernando Medina Corey
